

TOGA Party! Club Bucky with WASB

Event Description

We're gonna dance the night away like its 500BC – except with 2500 years of experience! Bring out your finest ancient Greek Toga and head to Madison Avenue for a chance to socialize with other students. The event will include a dance competition with prizes, a DJ, and other forms of entertainment provided by WASB.

When

Wednesday, April 25th, 2007 @ 9pm – Midnight

Where

Madison Avenue

Rules

- 1) Each team is allowed one male/female couple for the dance contest. The name of each participant must be turned in at the opening ceremony to Drew Willert or Janelle Carew to participate in the dance contest (see following page).
- 2) Points will be awarded based on the percentage of your team that attends, with extra points for those in Ancient Greek attire, so be sure to have everyone sign in at the door.
- 3) This is a non-alcoholic event funded by WASB. Alcoholic drinks will not be available until the event officially ends at midnight, and intoxicated individuals will not be allowed to enter.
- 4) Togas must be appropriate – use your best judgment! Individuals with inappropriate attire will not be allowed to enter.
- 5) Please remember to be respectful, and to represent the Greek Community in whatever way you think is best! This event will be open to all students and our attire will clearly give us away as Greeks, so let's show them what Greeks are really about!

Points

10 points if your team participates in the dance contest

10 additional points if your team places 1st 2nd or 3rd in the campus-wide competition

1 point per 1% of your team that attends (2 per 1% for those dressed as ancient Greeks!) (25 points max)
